Course overview

A myriad of opportunities exist across all facets of business and government for people with professional business and marketing skills.

This nationally recognised qualification reflects the role of individuals with substantial experience in a range of settings and who are seeking to further develop their skills across a wide range of business functions.

Typically, individuals with little or no vocational experience but who possess sound theoretical business skills and knowledge that they would like to further develop in order to create further educational and employment opportunities are ideally suited for this qualification.

The Diploma of Business offered by ANIBT will enable you achieve what you’ve always wanted to in the world of business. It will equip you with the skills and knowledge to manage strategic and operational facets of any business or organisation, particularly in the areas of marketing and advertising.

Whether you are aspiring to own and manage your own business or are currently working your way up the ladder within an existing business and looking to formalise your skills, this will be an ideal qualification to complete.

Entry requirements

It is highly recommended that students are currently in a workplace or have access to a workplace for this course.

For Diploma level courses the recommended minimum level of education is Higher School Certificate or equivalent or relevant qualification (at Certificate III or above) or relevant vocational experience.

In addition, students may enter the qualification through a number of entry points demonstrating potential to undertake vocational education and training at diploma level including:

- after achieving the BSB40207 Certificate IV in Business or other relevant qualification/s;
- providing evidence of competency in the majority of units required for the BSB40207 Certificate IV in Business or other relevant qualification/s;
- with vocational experience in a range of work environments in senior support roles but without a qualification.

For international students

Please check with the Australian Department of Immigration and Citizenship regarding international students enrolling into any on-line only based qualifications.

The Australian government publishes rules for English language proficiency for international students applying for entry to vocational training. You should establish your country’s assessment level by reading the DIAC rules at www.immi.gov.au/students/. Be aware that the rules may be changed during 2012.

Generally, to demonstrate English language proficiency for doing a Certificate or Diploma course, an international student needs one of the following test scores:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Test</th>
<th>IELTS</th>
<th>CAE</th>
<th>PTE Ac</th>
<th>TOEFL iBT</th>
<th>TOEFL PBT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Score</td>
<td>5.5</td>
<td>47</td>
<td>42</td>
<td>46</td>
<td>527</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ANIBT also accepts completion of a recognised equivalent English preparation course from an accredited ELICOS provider. Admission may be approved if the language of instruction in the student’s home country is English or if English has been the language spoken in the student’s home.

Overseas students who do not provide a satisfactory score from an English test recognised by DIAC will be interviewed to ascertain their language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) skills and may have to do an LLN test at ANIBT.

If necessary, the student will need to complete an English language course at ANIBT before being admitted to a vocational training Certificate or Diploma course.
