Course overview

The hospitality industry provides a vast array of career opportunities across a broad range of sectors.

This qualification reflects the role of commercial cooks who use a wide range of well-developed cookery skills and sound knowledge of kitchen operations to prepare food and menu items. Using discretion and judgement, they work with some independence and under limited supervision using plans, policies and procedures to guide work activities.

Typically, work would be undertaken in various hospitality enterprises where food is prepared and served including:

- Restaurants
- Hotels
- Clubs
- Pubs
- Cafes
- Cafeterias
- Coffee shops

Individuals may have some responsibility for others and provide technical advice and support to a team.

Entry requirements

There are no pre-requisites for entry into this qualification. However, it is highly recommended that students are currently in a workplace or have access to a workplace for this course.

For international students

Please check with the Australian Department of Immigration and Border Protection regarding international students enrolling into any on-line only based qualifications.

The Australian government publishes rules for English language proficiency for international students applying for entry to vocational training. You should establish your country's assessment level by reading the DIBP rules at www.immi.gov.au/students/. Be aware that the rules may be changed during 2017.

Generally, to demonstrate English language proficiency for doing a Certificate or Diploma course, an international student needs one of the following test scores:

Test	IELTS	PTE Ac	TOEFL iBT	TOEFL PBT	Cambridge
Score	5.5	42	46	527	B2 – 160-179

ANIBT also accepts completion of a recognised equivalent English preparation course from an accredited ELICOS provider. Admission may be approved if the language of instruction in the student's home country is English or if English has been the language spoken in the student's home.

SIT30816 Certificate III in Commercial Cookery

Overseas students who do not provide a satisfactory score from an English test recognised by DIBP will be interviewed to ascertain their language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) skills.

All students must complete a Language, Literacy and Numeracy test at ANIBT as part of the enrolment process.

If necessary, the student will need to complete an English language course at ANIBT before being admitted to a vocational training Certificate or Diploma course.

Note: ANIBT may establish student's English language proficiency appropriateness' level if:

- The student has completed 1-year study which is taught in English
- The student has successfully completed ELICOS course and the level is equivalent to IELTS 5.5
- The student passes ANCE English assessment test, under supervision by ANIBT or ANIBT representative agents (does not apply to offshore direct-application).
